Dear Sir/Madam,
My name is Naheem Aziz,I have been apart of TAWS since January 2019.
During my first months I had been placed with Colin Hexley as an assistant.

Colin is a true gentleman and very professional when it comes to working with kids.His focus remains consistent and also his friendliness to the kids.I have never seen Colin have a bad day,or in a situation that overpowered his focus on his duties.

On a note of my development,Colin has been very helpful.He has a good ability to give good feedback which allowed me to reflect and improve my delivery. Once Colin noticed I had taken his advise and improved my delivery, he was very complimentary and congratulated my efforts.This I feel is very important as giving the wrong type of feedback can cause a negative effect.

Kind regards,

Naheem Aziz

Colin joined the team in 2019 embracing the new changes to the delivery of Bikeability and embedding them into his delivery out in schools.

His feedback about the changes are really positive and he sees first-hand the impact that empowering and enabling the young riders to make their own decisions has on their riding ability.

Colin has a lovely manner with the children and is always upbeat and strives on ensuring the riders enjoy the sessions he runs.
