Westminster council are committed to providing high-quality Bikeability training for as many children as possible. Carla Leowe works tirelessly to improve access to cycle training for as many people in Westminster as possible. The council's work to provide training in schools, at after-school clubs, during school holidays and at weekends shows their commitment to expanding access to training.

Carla is always working to secure further funding for Bikeability training and has hugely increased the amount of funding available for this training over the past two years.

The council also works hard to increase the awareness of cycle training through advertising all of the available training well throughout the borough and encouraging uptake of all cycle-related activities. This includes maintenance courses, Dr Bike sessions and working with a multitude of community groups in the borough.

2. Please list below any accompanying high-quality evidence to support your nomination
